
About the Material

During the early 1970s I experienced quite a windfall of raw American Nazi Party documentation. Most of what has already gone before in this current series has stemmed from this very same treasure trove. However, there was a small amount of 8mm film included also. And this volume deals with that.

The opening segment which is presented here I found in a small box of its own marked in pencil, "50 Feet of U.S. Nazis On the March". And I think it a safe bet that the handwriting is that of Commander Rockwell himself. It is unique here as it is the only segment that was ever
